

Tips for Shopping Our Estate Sales

Shopping our estate sales should feel exciting, rewarding, and—most importantly—worth the trip. Whether you're hunting for rare finds, furnishing a new space, or just love the thrill of discovery, arriving early the day of the event is always recommended. We offer the most convenient tool that allows you to enjoy breakfast, shop another sale comfortably; all while having a secured spot in line when you arrive before 9:55 AM.

Many shoppers line up 1–2 hours before we open, especially when we have high-demand items. That's why our Line System exists: to help you stay comfortable, avoid harsh weather, and increase your chances of getting the item you've been eyeing.

And remember—tickets are never required to enter our estate sales. After 10:00 AM, anyone can simply walk in and shop at their leisure.

What Is a “Line System”?

Our Line System is designed to keep you comfortable, reduce unnecessary wait times, and help you secure your spot before an event begins. It allows customers to reserve a place in line without standing outside in inclement weather.

FREE tickets become available one week before each event at 8:00 PM (MST).

Tickets are not required for entry, but they are highly recommended if you want a reserved spot in line before doors open.

You only need a ticket if you plan to arrive before 9:55 AM and still want a guaranteed place in line.
